Reconciliation in the Aftermath of Violence

IN OUR SON'S NAME

A Film by Gayla Jamison

When: 3:00 PM on Sunday, September 27

Where: Unitarian Universalist Congregation of Princeton 50 Cherry Hill Rd., Princeton, NJ
08540

(Just up the hill from the light at intersection with Route 206)

Join the Coalition for Peace Action (CFPA) for a screening of "In Our Son's Name" followed by a Q & A with the maker of the film, and the parents of the victim. A story about a family who lost their son to the 9/11 attacks and have chosen a path of peace, not retribution, in order to "maintain their own humanity and to see the humanity in others". This event is FREE and open to the public. There is a suggested donation of $5/person at the door, to offset event costs.

IN OUR SON'S NAME is an intimate portrait of Phyllis and Orlando Rodríguez, whose son, Greg, died with thousands of others in the World Trade Center on September 11, 2001. The bereaved parents choose reconciliation and nonviolence over vengeance and begin a transformative journey that both confirms and challenges their convictions.

The screening will be followed by a Q & A with the maker of the film, Gayla Jamison, and the parents of the victim, Orlando & Phyllis Rodriguez.

Facilitated by the Peace Action Education Committee of the Coalition for Peace Action (CFPA)
